

ART ON ALBERTA BOARD

President: HILARY PFEIFER
president@artonalberta.org

Hilary Pfeifer, Art on Alberta President, has lived in the Alberta Arts District since 2002, although her roots in the neighborhood go back a century when her great grandfather built the majestic St. Andrews Church on 10th Street. She makes her living as an artist, creating sculptural installations for galleries and museums around the world. She also runs a small business from her home studio called Bunny with a Toolbelt.

Vice President: PEGGY PFENNINGER
vicepres@artonalberta.org

Peggy Pfenninger, Art on Alberta Vice President, escapes the rigid constraints of her 9 to 5 existence as a graphic designer at Camera Graphics by painting, taking photographs, mentoring for the Oregon Youth Challenge Program, and volunteering for Art on Alberta. This fiery Italian is a regular bike commuter who loves karaoke and owns a home in the Concordia neighborhood. Peggy graduated with a BFA from Savannah College of Art and Design.

Secretary: LYDIA MOORE
secretary@artonalberta.org

Lydia Moore is our Secretary and Vendor Coordinator. She received degrees in art and design, and is currently working towards her MBA in Nonprofits Management. When she is not working or studying she is pursuing her own personal artistic endeavors that span group shows and donations to nonprofits for fundraising projects. A lover of popcorn and an owner of a traveling black cat who has lived in six states, Lydia is happily settling in to her Portland life.

Treasurer: LAURA PACKARD
treasurer@artonalberta.org

Art on Alberta Treasurer Laura Packard received her BAFA in art history from Alfred University and escaped chilly Western New York State for Portland three years ago. Currently, Laura works in an accounting position with OHSU's technology transfer office. When not playing with numbers for work, grad school, or AoA, she can be found reading excellent books, baking delicious items, or palling around with her cats.

Public Relations: JAYE CAMPBELL
pr@artonalberta.org

Art on Alberta Public Relations Coordinator Jaye Campbell started her Flying Shuttle Weaving Studio custom handweaving business in 1979. One of her ongoing clients is Timberline Lodge which was featured last year in the PBS series, "Craft in America" so she experienced a nanosecond of fame in the filming of the segment on the Lodge. Jaye is the Textiles Coordinator, the Gallery Coordinator, and a weaving instructor at the Multnomah Arts Center in Portland, and also volunteers as a textiles consultant to Frank Lloyd Wright's Gordon House in Silverton.

Education Outreach: MARY BRYANT
education@artonalberta.org

Mary Bryant is our Educational Outreach Coordinator. She and her partner moved to the Alberta area in 2007 and absolutely love it here. Mary received her master's in Arts Administration from the University of Oregon. As a teaching fellow, she taught philosophy of art to undergrad students while working as a user interface designer and editor for an interactive educational design firm. Highlights of her career as an artist and educator include producing cabarets and multi-media dance events, tutoring and teaching workshops on expository writing, and teaching stop-motion animation to kids.

Website: JENN WOODWARD
website@artonalberta.org

Jenn Woodward joined Art on Alberta to oversee the website at <http://artonalberta.org>. Originally from Texas, Jenn received her MFA in studio art from the joint degree program of Tufts University/ The School of the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston. After weathering many brutal New England winters, Jenn, her fiance, and their two cats moved to Portland four years ago. She and her crew are happy to be here, still marveling at the beauty of Portland, and how nice everyone here is!

Membership: ALICE ORLEMAN MCLEAN
membership@artonalberta.org

Art on Alberta Membership Coordinator Alice Orleman McLean has a BFA in sculpture and BA in Art History from Boston University and California College of Arts and Crafts. She lived and worked in San Francisco as a product and floral designer before helping a friend establish her mosaic company, where she quickly become the project manager. Alice relocated to Portland in 2006 where she feels settled in this art-filled and inspiring city. When not driving up membership numbers for Art on Alberta, she works as a mosaic assistant for large-scale commissions.

Newsletter and Grants: EVE CONNELL
news@artonalberta.org

Eve Connell's realm at Art on Alberta spans newsletter creation, and grants writing and oversight. This native Californian relocated to the Concordia neighborhood four+ years ago only to immediately consider Portland home. Eve is a retired college/graduate school professor and former art gallery owner who now spends billable hours writing, editing, singing, and flower arranging. She fancies herself a worm rancher and eats ice cream three times a day in the summer months.

Community Outreach: CHRIS ELLIS
engage@artonalberta.org

Chris Ellis is our Community Outreach Coordinator who also runs the Alberta Drawing Group in conjunction with Enterbeing, NE Alberta Street's interfaith based community center. His photography, paintings, sculptures, and drawings can be found on display throughout Portland and are included in private collections, both throughout the United States and abroad. Chris attended Reed College and the Université de Haute Bretagne, Rennes, France.

Volunteer Coordinator: ABBY KLIGER MACKE
volunteer@artonalberta.org

After volunteering with Art on Alberta in the past, Abby Kliger Macke has recently become our Volunteer Coordinator. She joined Art on Alberta with hopes to be an active part of her neighborhood. Ten years ago, after getting her MFA in Museum Exhibition Planning and Design on the east coast, she moved to the Pacific Northwest and started her career designing exhibits for museums and interpretive centers. Since buying her first house close to the Alberta Arts District, she is finally able to call someplace "home" and is happy for it to be Portland.

Exhibitions: LISTEL BJORCK
exhibitions@artonalberta.org

Listel Bjorck, AoA's Exhibitions Coordinator, is a Los Angeles native who earned a degree in fine arts, where she concentrated in oil painting and bookmaking. She plans to obtain her MFA and continue on to teach art at the university level. Listel has worked in many museums and galleries, including DIA: Beacon in Beacon, NY. She spent last summer biking through France, Spain, and Portugal and hopes to visit South America next year. In her spare time loves to ride horses, bike, sew, and learn new languages.
